

Resurgence of Moderns.
Talk of your Demosthenes, your Cicero, of the ancient orator. How will both grow "small by degrees and beautifully less," when their best effort is put in contrast with our modern model orator, Winfield Scott? They have been called the greatest orators that ever stirred the passions of the world. Students have striven to model after them, and books are black, "flat, stale and unprofitable," that have not their choice extracts. This only shows how partial the public taste may be by cultivation.

What did ever Demosthenes or Cicero declaim, or Tasso or Dante sing, half so eloquent, half so chaste, or half so spirit stirring, as the following transcendent effort, by the great modern orator, general, and Whig stumpster, Gen. Scott? It is his speech, made at Tiffin, after leaving this city.

FELLOW CITIZENS—I am glad to see so many of you here this evening. I am disappointed in your place, coming, as I supposed, to this wilderness, where there were but few inhabitants. I find myself in the midst of a large city, and the inhabitants are intelligent. Fellow citizens, I am exceedingly glad to see you—Whigs, Democrats, and Free-soilers; for I understand this reception without distinction of party. And the fair ladies, too, are here; you all come to do some small honor to an old soldier. But there is one thing pains me; it mixes this otherwise joyous occasion with much regret. It is a lament, if any of you should catch cold, or get sick by coming out to-night, I should feel incalculable. If any of the fair ladies should get sick by it, it would greatly mar the joy of the present occasion. But, my fellow citizens, native and otherwise, be glad to see you; it is raining, and I am much fatigued. I thank you for this reception. I must bid you good night, and I hope to see you to-morrow morning.

The incident never had anything like that—the moderns only boast such giant intellect, and burning oratory. When the book-maker up another volume of the Classics, it will only show how ungrateful they are to an old soldier, if they copy from Phillips or Grant, from Shakespeare or Bulwer, and pass by Scott.—Cin. Eng.

NEW DRY GOODS HOUSE.

R. BRUNNER,
WOULD RESPECTFULLY SAY TO his friends and the public, that he has opened a New Dry Goods Store, on the corner of Market and second streets, in the rooms formerly occupied by Reside & Co. where he has on hand a complete assortment of suitable for the Fall and Winter Trade. His stock consists, in part, of—Brown and Bleached Sheetings and Shirts, Cotton Flannels, Tickings, Checks, Prints and Ginghams; Plain and Twilled Flannel and Cloak.

DRY GOODS

Cassimeres, Tweeds, Serges, Jeans, Hats, and Caps, together with almost every article kept in a Dry Goods House, all of which he offers to sell as low as any house in the City. He hopes by strict attention to business and by keeping a full and varied stock, to merit and receive a liberal share of public patronage.

Please recollect the place where cheap goods can be had, Corner of Market and Second streets.

Portsmouth, Sept. 29, 1852.—d1

SPANISH SOLE LEATHER.

500 LBS. No. 1 Spanish Sole Leather just received and for sale at the lowest market price by R. L. OYD & CO.
Sept. 8, 1852.

How Sharper than a Serpent's Tooth it is to have a Pinching Boot.
HAVE you corns, that distress of a refusal to be cured, banished forever from your feet, and enjoy comfort in your daily, and it may be nightly walks, unrestrained at every stride, that there are quacks in trade as well as in medicine, and that you have been an unhappy victim? Has your enjoyment ever been destroyed, and your bright eyes, smiling faces and happy friends, on alone, unimpeded, silently and severely suffering, from the biting, pinching, aching pain of corns, unable to rejoice with those that do rejoice, but compelled almost to weep amid hilarity and joyousness, and would you lay aside the cause of this inquietude? Then call on R. BELL & CO.
Oct. 16, 1852.

A Problem.

IF without effort, small outlay of time, and strong competition in a numerous community of Cordwainers, under adverse circumstances, a pair of your Boots carry off the prize awarded by intelligent men, what must our Boots be like when time is given, labor bestowed, increased labor employed, and greater knowledge brought to bear, in getting up a pair of Boots for a customer.

The demonstration presented makes clear to us the truth "such as to afford unbounded gratification to the happy possessor of them." For a practical demonstration call on R. BELL & CO.

MANY ladies are compelled to wear a great variety of shoes, in consequence of inability to obtain a neat fitting one and the fair forms which terminate so well are considered unbecomingly because of the influence communicated by it. Sympathy for them, excited by a knowledge of this fact, causes us the greatest pleasure to disseminate the information that a remedy for the above deficiency can be procured by calling on R. BELL & CO.

Always Ready!

R. BELL & CO., would respectfully announce to their customers and friends, that they have just received a part of their earliest shipment of Fall Stock; consisting of seventy-one cases of Boots and Shoes, suited to late Summer and early Fall trade, and that they intend to receive during this month and next the most extensive and best assorted stock of Goods they have ever had, and feel prepared to supply any increase of trade, with which they may be favored. Grateful to a liberal public for liberal patronage heretofore, they pledge themselves to render full and entire satisfaction to their customers in all cases, and hope with low prices, good stock and untiring efforts to accommodate, to merit and receive a continuance of favors from former patrons and a fair share of the rapidly increasing trade of our city. Always on hand, the very best work of their own manufacture in quantities to suit. Portsmouth, Aug. 21, 1852.

For the Ladies!
PATENT LEATHER LINDS
Enamelled Linds and Buckins;

TO SHOE MANUFACTURERS.
FRENCH, Calif, and Kip Morocco, Kid and P. tent Leather, Upper and Sole Leather, Linings and Bindings, Lests, (a good stock), Pegs, Nails, and Kit of all kinds, together with a general assortment of articles to their line, have just been received by R. BELL & CO.
aug. 25—d1

The Late Ohio State Fair.
A many of our citizens have not been able, on account of business and other matters, to have visited Cleveland during the late exhibition of the State's ingenuity, &c., the undersigned would most respectfully call the attention of all that are in want of CHEAP GOODS to the rumors of New Goods that they have just received at their old stand, adapted to the wants of all, which will be sold at extremely low prices. They are determined to maintain the confidence of their friends, and have exerted their endeavors to bring on a splendid stock of very cheap and handsome goods for the season. Visit, then, the establishment of W. HALL & SON, and secure a very great saving in your purchase.

Their aim is to please and accommodate all; and in order to do this they buy their goods all for cash; do their own work; no rent nor clerk hire to pay, and consequently can sell very cheap.

They have received also, a fine assortment of ready made clothing, which they will sell at equally low prices.

They are satisfied that an examination by the purchasing community is only necessary to confirm all they say.

W. H. and Son avail themselves of this occasion to return sincere thanks to their friends for the very liberal patronage heretofore received and hope to merit a continuance of their favors.

W. HALL & SON.
RUMORS.
Portsmouth, Oct. 6, 1852.

"Open your ears; for which if you will stop The vent of hearing when loud rumor speaks." SHAKESPEARE.

"Tis strange—'tis very wonderful! That rumor once the truth should speak: Astonishing the multitude To see her play so strange a freak— But if a doubt you have indulged, You'll find your bosoms doubt no more, If you'll but take the time to call At W. Hall & Son's cheap store. The most fastidious there will find Dry Goods suited to their mind. The best and cheapest ever made Of every fashion and every grade. Just call and see, you'll find forthwith, That Rumor sometimes speaks the truth.

A JOB PRESS.

To the Business Men of Portsmouth.

We have the pleasure of informing our Job customers that we have procured a Power Press, built expressly for Jobs, and are now able to do that class of work just as cheap as any other establishment in the west, and we flatter ourselves about as much. The Press is capable of making some 1500 impressions per hour, and it is pronounced by Press manufacturers to be the best of the kind in the Union. We have, also, a large supply of paper and cards, together with an assortment of beautifully bordered card boards, to which we invite the attention of those who wish fancy cards. We solicit a call and from gentlemen wishing anything done in our line, and assure them that for style, promptness and cheapness, we will be surpassed by no office in this region. A. PEARCE.

HATS FOR THE PEOPLE!

Samuel G. Glover,
HAVING purchased the entire interest of Messrs. J. Glover & D. Wolfard in the Hat Store, would respectfully inform the public that he intends continuing the business at the old stand on Front st. between Market and Jefferson, soliciting a continuance of the liberal patronage heretofore extended to the concern, and hopes by unflinching attention to business and an eye single to the wants of the public, to give satisfaction to all. He has now on hand a large and general assortment of

Hats and Caps,
Trunks, Carpet Bags, Umbrellas &c., of every description, TOGETHER WITH EVERY VARIETY OF STRAW GOODS.

Having purchased the above stock of Goods for cash, at reduced rates, he is enabled to sell AT WHOLESALE OR RETAIL, a little lower than they have been purchased heretofore at the same establishment, and a GREAT DEAL LOWER than they can be purchased at any other place in this city. His arrangements are such that he will be in the constant receipt of the latest style of Goods of every description in his line, which will enable him at all times to anticipate the wants of the most "Progressive."

Every description of Furs and Skins purchased, for which he will pay the highest price in cash or Hats.
July 13, 1852.—d1w

Those Soft Hats, again.

FROM the good effect produced on the wearer by those Soft Kossuth Hats, the subscriber was induced to order an additional supply, and has now on hand a greater variety than was ever offered to this community.
aug. 16 w1f S. G. GLOVER.

Fall Styles.
THERE are two things that more than anything else mark the gentleman—says an ancient writer on physiology—the one is a finely proportioned head and the other a suitable covering for it. Now, if you are blessed with the first of these you can always get the second at the Hat Store of S. G. Glover, on Front street, between Market and Jefferson. The Extra No. 1 Molehairs he is now finishing, are voted among the most elegant fabrics to be found east or west.
(aug. 16)

Straw Goods.
AS the season is getting late, the subscriber will sell his remaining stock of the above goods at cost.
Aug. 16, 1852.—d1w S. G. GLOVER.

Country Merchants.
ARE ADVISED, if they wish to save time and money, to go direct to the Hat Store to purchase Hats, as it is the only place where a full stock can be found. They can be had there at prices that cannot fail to suit the purchaser. (July 24, 1852.) S. G. GLOVER.

H. G. & A. B. JONES, DRUGGISTS.
Front Street, Portsmouth, O.
KEEP always on hand a large and well selected assortment of—
Pure Drugs, Medicines, Perfumery and Fancy Articles,
Pure Wines and Brandy for Medicinal purposes. All of which they earnestly invite the purchasing community to call and examine and be convinced that things in the Drug Line, are not always to be done up on the "Old Dog Ager System."

Portsmouth, Sept. 1, '52—3md w

"Keep it before the People."
THOSE FALL STYLE No. 1 and 2 Silk Hats now finishing at the Hat Store cannot be beat, for beauty or durability. Country dealers are requested to call and examine them before going forth.

NEW CLOTHING STORE.

E. STAR, Wholesale and Retail CLOTHIER,
Front street, one door above McDowell & Co., Portsmouth, O.

BEGS leave to announce to the citizens of this place and the surrounding country, that he has just commenced the clothing business, and having brought on a very large and desirable stock and obtained the services of Mr. M. SEEBERGER as salesman in the establishment, he is prepared to furnish the trade with anything in his line, on the most favorable terms. Without any desire to win the appellation of a "beater," he will say, and he is prepared to demonstrate the truth, that he can sell FIFTEEN PER CENT CHEAPER than any house in this city. His stock consists in part of—
Ready Made Clothing, Hats, Caps, Shirts, Undershirts, Drawers, Trunks, Carpet Sacks, Satchels, Gold and Silver Watches, Jewelry and Notions.

Let him earnestly solicit country merchants and furriers to give him a call, feeling confident that it is to their interests so to do.

MILLER & ELSAS,

Wholesale & Retail Clothiers, AND MERCHANT TAILORS,
Front St., one door west of J. Ludwick & Son's, Portsmouth, Ohio.

HAVE just received their stock of FALL AND WINTER GOODS, and are now prepared to accommodate their friends with anything in the way of dress, on terms unusually moderate.

Their stock of CLOTHS, CASSIMERES and VESTS cannot be surpassed in quality, while their heavy made coats will win in neatness, cheapness and durability, with any in the market. Their supply is a very heavy one, and as everything now a-days goes at Railroad speed, they invite Merchants, Farmers, and Furriers who desire to purchase wholesale bills to give them a call as soon as possible.

Considering themselves second to none in CUTTING AND FITTING, and being determined not to be undersold, they invite gentlemen desirous of wearing a fine, fashionable and cheap suit of clothes to give them a call.

Cravats of various kinds, Pocketkerchiefs, Shirts, Gloves, Suspenders, &c., always on hand.

WISTAR'S BALM OF WILD CHERRY
For Coughs, Colds, Asthma, Croup, Bronchitis, Influenza, Bleeding of the Lungs, Difficult Breathing, Liver Affections, Pain or Weakness of the Breast or Side, First Stage Consumption, &c., &c.

In short, this Balm is peculiarly adapted to every disease of the Lungs and Liver, which is produced by our ever varying climate.

Will Cherry has long been known to possess important medicinal properties. This fact is familiar to every man in our land, and Physicians often prescribe it in difficult cases for a variety of complaints. For who, who has not equally noted its virtues, and some physicians, whose name is familiar to the whole country, have gone so far as to declare that even consumption could be cured by this alone. In other hands, again, it was nearly valueless, owing, no doubt to their ignorance in preparing and administering it. A remedy so universally obviated by patient experience and long experiment.

The extraordinary medicinal powers of these two substances are now, for the first time, combined and embodied in DR. WISTAR'S BALM OF WILD CHERRY. By a nice chemical process, every thing deleterious or useless is rejected, so that what remains is the most extraordinary and truly efficacious remedy for all kinds of pulmonary and liver diseases ever known to man. To convince all unbelievers, that our theory is really true, we refer to a few cases of cures performed by this wonderful medicine.

TWO LIVES SAVED BY THE USE OF ONLY THREE BOTTLES OF WISTAR'S BALM OF WILD CHERRY.
Mt. Edge, Ky, July 34, 1852.

Messrs. Harcourt Howard & Co. Gent.—The Dr. Wistar's Balm of Wild Cherry, the first I thought of you has been of such signal benefit to my family, that I wish to make it known to the public.

My wife took cold at the time of her confinement, which settled on her Lungs. The physicians pronounced her disease consumption. She had profuse night sweats and had coughs; she was given up, for we despaired of her recovery, and her child perished of her complaint. She then commenced taking Wistar's Balm of Wild Cherry, and three bottles effected an entire cure with her and the child both.

I have no doubt that they would have now been in their graves if they had not have used Wistar's Balm of Wild Cherry.

SETH R. SEARCY.

Seth R. Searcy, whose certificate is above, is a man of sound veracity as any in this country, and a man of good judgment, and we place entire confidence in his statement.

HARCOURT, HOWARD & CO.

The genuine Wistar's Balm of Wild Cherry has a fine simile of the signature of Henry Wistar, M. D., Philadelphia, and "anford & Park," on a finely engraved seal wrapper—no other can be genuine.

Price $1 per bottle—six bottles for $5.

Sold by J. D. PARK, Cincinnati, O.

Northeast corner of Fourth and Walnut streets—can reach on Walnut street—no whom all orders must be addressed.

Also sold by J. L. Vey & Co; and Shackelford & Crichton, H. G. & A. B. Jones, Portsmouth; Truesdale & Haynes, Jasper, E. Long, Jackson; E. B. Perkins, Ironton; Emmitt & Davis, Waverly; J. W. Dunham, Picketon; D. Sprout, Chillicothe.

DR. GUY'S IMPROVED EXTRACT OF YELLOW DOCK AND SARAPARILLA
THE original and only genuine preparation for the permanent cure of consumption and diseases of the lungs when they are supposed to be affected by the free use of Mercury, iron, quinine, &c.

Let all who wish to purge the blood from impurities, and prepare the system to resist epidemics, resort to "Dr. Guy's" Extract of Yellow Dock and Saraparilla, which is proving itself an antidote for many of the most malignant diseases that flesh is heir to, and they will be disappointed; for in this remedy the public faith has never wavered—never can waver; for it is founded on experience, just as their want of faith in other and spurious compounds is founded on experience. They fly from mineral nostrums to seek hope, life and vigor from this purely vegetable remedy, however broken down in health and spirits—however despondent in mind and others, let not one despair of recovery; let the patient only understand that his hope of physical restoration lies only in "Guy's" Extract of Yellow Dock and Saraparilla, and persuade him, for his life's sake, to try it, and we have no hesitation in predicting his speedy restoration to health.

The Shaker prepared "Yellow Dock," and the "Red Honduras Saraparilla," are the invaluable remedial agents from which Dr. Guy's improved extract of Yellow Dock and Saraparilla is formed, and the Laboratory of Dr. Guy's has given us the virtue of these roots in their perfection. His preparation contains all the restorative properties of the roots, combined and concentrated in their utmost strength and efficacy.

Experiments were made in the manufacture of this medicine until it was found that it could not be further improved.

Accordingly, we find it resorted to almost universally in cases of Hepatic, Scrobutic and Catarrhal complaints, for general purification of all the vital powers, and all those torturing diseases of the skin so trying the patience and so injurious to health.

The following case of Benjamin Hughes is one of the most astonishing on record. After forty years' sickness, two years' excruciating torture, the amputation of one leg, and the body and limbs almost a mass of eating, putrefying, discharging ulcers, to be cured by eight bottles of Guy's Extract of Yellow Dock and Saraparilla, is almost miraculous.

Dr. Guy's—Dear Sir:—I send you this to certify to you that your Extract of Yellow Dock and Saraparilla has performed one of the most wonderful cures on me that has ever been effected on man.

I have been afflicted for forty years with rheumatism in my legs and feet; in 1848 they got so bad that I had to go on crutches, and in 1849 I had one leg amputated above the knee. In about 6 months after, my other leg broke out in large eating and running sores from my knee to my foot, and discharged a great deal of fetid matter.

$1 per bottle—six bottles for $5.
